Bottom Line:

As believers in Christ, we have close connections to God that give us wonderful access to Him in good times and in bad.

1. The powerful motivation of a debt of _____.
Romans 8:12-14

A. _____ to the Holy Spirit is a powerful indicator of being a true believer. v. 13

B. _____ the Holy Spirit is a necessary strategy of living as a true believer. v. 14

2. The incredible _____ of intimacy with God. Romans 8:15-16

A. Prior to Christ – Slaves of _____ resulting in fear and isolation. v. 15

B. After Christ – Children of _____ resulting in love and relationship. v. 15

3. The wonderful _____ that comes with being faithful to Christ. Romans 8:15-17

Now What:

1) Focus on communicating your _____ for the Lord in your prayers, your thoughts, and your actions.

2) *Renew your commitment to draw _____ to God
in your heart.*

3) See _____ as opportunities to demonstrate your heart for God by following Him in obedience.
