

JOB

Elihu's Speech, part 3

Job 36:1-37:24

Mac Williams, Pastor

December 2, 2012

1. Elihu's final speech.

36:1-4. Elihu asks Job to continue to hear what he has to say because his message is from _____.

36:5-16. Elihu affirms the power, goodness and justice of God in the way He deals with men in _____.

36:17-23. Elihu encourages Job to be careful that he _____ what God is teaching him in his trials.

36:24-33. Elihu reminds Job that God is greatly exalted and cares for all, as exemplified in the _____ He provides.

37:1-13. Elihu describes God's mighty _____ in nature by speaking of thunder storms, snow storms, and rain storms.

37:14-20. Elihu challenges Job to _____ the wonders of God in nature.

37:21-24. Elihu closes by challenging Job to _____ himself to God.

2. Lessons to be learned from Elihu.

a. God has _____ purposes in the trials that He providentially brings into our lives.

1) God uses trials to reveal _____ in our lives.

2) God uses trials to _____ us things about Himself that we would not learn otherwise.

3) God uses trials to keep us from sin in the _____.

b. God's sovereign power that is easily seen in the _____, reminds us of His greatness and our need to trust Him.

1) The thunder reminds us of God's majestic _____.

2) The _____ in the weather remind us that God is ruling over all things to accomplish His purposes.

3) Our limited understanding of His wonders reminds us that we should live in _____ of Him.