

Made for MORE

“A People Who Engage Cross-Culturally”

Key Thought:

Cross-cultural engagement reflects the love of Christ and enriches us spiritually.

Made for MORE

Three New Testament Terms
Relating to Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Ethnos—people groups (Matthew 28:19-20 ; Luke 24:46-47)

Three New Testament Terms
Relating to Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Ethnos—people groups (Matthew 28:19-20 ; Luke 24:46-47)
2. Cosmos—world system (Mark 16:15; 1 John 2:15-16)

Three New Testament Terms
Relating to Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Ethnos—people groups (Matthew 28:19-20 ; Luke 24:46-47)
2. Cosmos—world system (Mark 16:15; 1 John 2:15-16)
3. Zenos—foreigner (Matthew 25:34-40; Ephesians 2:19)

Three Significant Barriers to Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Isolation—we simply shield ourselves from others.

Three Significant Barriers to Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Isolation—we simply shield ourselves from others.
2. Intimidation—we simply fear those who are different.

Three Significant Barriers to Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Isolation—we simply shield ourselves from others.
2. Intimidation—we simply fear those who are different.
3. Indifference—we simply don't care about lost people.

Three Lessons from Acts 17:16-34 that
Challenge us toward Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Pagan aspects of our culture should upset us enough to speak up for Jesus Christ (17:16-21).

Three Lessons from Acts 17:16-34 that
Challenge us toward Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Pagan aspects of our culture should upset us enough to speak up for Jesus Christ (17:16-21).
2. Positive aspects of our culture can become tools for introducing people to Jesus Christ (17:22-31).

Three Lessons from Acts 17:16-34 that Challenge us toward Cross-Cultural Engagement

1. Pagan aspects of our culture should upset us enough to speak up for Jesus Christ (17:16-21).
2. Positive aspects of our culture can become tools for introducing people to Jesus Christ (17:22-31).
3. In any culture, some people will resist and some people will receive Jesus Christ (17:32-34).

“A People Who Engage Cross-Culturally”

Key Thought:

Cross-cultural engagement reflects the love of Christ and enriches us spiritually.

Made for MORE