

Pious and Elaborate Treatise Concerning Prayer; and the Answer of Prayer.

By John Brown, of Wamphray.

(Chapter 17-How We Ask Not in the Name of Christ.)

“And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son: If ye shall ask anything in my Name I will do it.” John 14:13, 14.

337. What is Brown’s concern in this chapter?

338. What is the first particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ’s name alone?

339. In what ways do we draw encouragement from something other than the name of Christ?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

340. What is the second particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ’s name alone?

341. Wherein does the lack of boldness and confidence appear?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

342. What is the third particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ’s name alone?

343. Wherein does it appear that we place our hope of acceptance in other things?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

344. What is the fourth particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ's name alone?

345. Wherein does it appear that we find merit for answer in something other than Christ?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

346. What is the fifth particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ's name alone?

347. Wherein does it appear that we do not pray in Christ's strength?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

348. What is the sixth particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ's name alone?

349. Wherein does it appear that we fail to put our prayers in Christ's hand?

A. _____

B. _____

350. What is the seventh particular that shows us we are not praying in Christ's name alone?

351. Wherein does it appear that we are not quieting ourselves into this duty of prayer?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____