

“The Glory of the Son of Man”

Revelation 1:9-20

Isaiah 53:2-3, 7

I. John, on Patmos, was in the _____ on the Lord’s Day and was commanded to write to the _____ Asia Minor churches near him on the mainland (1:9-11).

Acts 12:1-3; Revelation 6:9

II. In the center of the seven lampstands stood One like the Son of _____ adorned with glorious attributes (1:12-16).

Daniel 7:13-14; 10:2-6

III. Falling as a dead man in His presence, John receives _____ and comfort in the person and power of Jesus (1:17-18).

Matthew 17:5-7; Isaiah 44:6; 48:12-13

IV. John is commissioned to write God’s revelation of what _____, what _____, and what _____ take place to the seven churches (1:19-20).

Revelation 2:9-10

“The Glory of the Son of Man”

Revelation 1:9-20

Isaiah 53:2-3, 7

I. John, on Patmos, was in the _____ on the Lord’s Day and was commanded to write to the _____ Asia Minor churches near him on the mainland (1:9-11).

Acts 12:1-3; Revelation 6:9

II. In the center of the seven lampstands stood One like the Son of _____ adorned with glorious attributes (1:12-16).

Daniel 7:13-14; 10:2-6

III. Falling as a dead man in His presence, John receives _____ and comfort in the person and power of Jesus (1:17-18).

Matthew 17:5-7; Isaiah 44:6; 48:12-13

IV. John is commissioned to write God’s revelation of what _____, what _____, and what _____ take place to the seven churches (1:19-20).

Revelation 2:9-10