

THE COVENANTS
The Covenant with Noah
Genesis 6:18, 9:1-17

1. The covenant with Noah is one of the divine covenants that is united around God's gracious _____ of a Redeemer first given in Genesis 3:15.

2. The _____ involved in the covenant with Noah.

- a. In the context of divine judgment, the Lord graciously initiates this covenant with _____, His righteous servant.
- b. Noah's _____ are beneficiaries of God's covenant with Noah.
- c. The _____ creatures that were saved in the ark are beneficiaries of this covenant with Noah.
- d. The _____ generations of all the "ark-dwellers", as long as the earth remains, are beneficiaries of the covenant with Noah.

3. The _____ and provisions made in the covenant with Noah.

- a. God promises that Noah, his family, and the selected animals will be _____ from the destruction He is bringing on the whole earth.

- b. God promises to never again _____ the whole earth with a flood and give the rainbow as a token of that promise.
- c. God renews and expands on the _____ mandate to give instructions for living on the earth.

4. Applications from God's covenant with Noah.

- a. The covenant with Noah ensures the continuing of the earth and the reality of _____ grace so that the promises made in Genesis 3:15 can be fulfilled.

*"Common grace restrains the human tendency towards destructive evil and encourages people to perform actions that are beneficial to the human race as a whole.
_____ grace transforms the sinful nature of God's elect so that they renounce unbelief and sinful behavior to serve the God who has redeemed them."
- James McGoldrick*

- b. The covenant with Noah symbolizes the _____ that God provides through Jesus Christ.

- 1) The message of salvation from sin and judgment was _____.
- 2) The _____ speaks of the salvation that only God can provide.
- 3) When Christ returns, _____ is a certainty and there will be no opportunity for a second chance.
