

God In Jesus: Just and Justifier
Isaiah 14-23

- I. Judgment on the Nations, Including Israel (14-23)
 - A. Idolatry
 - B. Oppression of God's People
 - C. Social Injustice
- II. The Picture of Redemption in the Midst of Judgment
 - A. Redemption In and From Babylon (14:1-2)
 - B. Redemption In and From Assyria (14:25 & 19:16-25)
 - C. Redemption In and From Philistia (14:30, 32)
 - D. Redemption In and From Moab (16:1)
 - E. Redemption In and From Cush (18:7)
 - F. Redemption In and From Egypt, Assyria, and Israel (19:16-25)
- III. God as Just and Justifier in Jesus (Romans 1-3)
 - A. All have sinned
 - 1. Those with the Law
 - 2. Those without the Law
 - 3. Sin in all its forms
 - a. Idolatry
 - b. Oppression of God's people
 - c. Social injustice
 - B. All deserve judgment
 - C. God, in Jesus, supplies mercy to those who are faith
 - 1. There is judgment
 - 2. Yet, there is redemption in the midst of it
 - D. The question is not, "Who wicked is too wicked?" It is not "Am I too far gone in my sin?" The real question is, "Is there anything greater than the grace of God to be found in the person and work of Jesus Christ?"

- 1. Unbeliever, wayward Christian, faithful sojourner – do not make your sin an idol; do not give more power and glory to your own flesh than to the work of Jesus
- 2. Adam is not greater than Jesus
