Deuteronomy 17:18–19

Deuteronomy 6:1–2, 4–9

For the unbeliever, the fear of the Lord is the fear of judgment which is eternal separation from God (Luke 12:5).

For the believer, the fear of the Lord is different. It's a reverence and awe that motivates trust, love, and obedience (Hebrews 12:28–29).

2 Timothy 2:22

1 Peter 1:13–19

“Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, ‘You shall be holy, for I am holy.’ And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot.”
