Engaging the Culture, Acts 17:16-33

The city of Athens

- A culture in decline
- Empty religion
- Failing philosophy

Paul’s message

- Paul’s spirit was “provoked”
- He dialogued
- He went to the Areopagus
- He testified
 - Being respectful.
 - Finding common ground
 - Reasoning about the nature of God

- Proclaiming the resurrection of Jesus Christ

The United States of America

- A culture in decline
- Empty religion
- Failing philosophy

Our message

- Get provoked
- Engage in dialog
- Take opportunities to speak
- Testify
 - Be respectful.
 - Find common ground
 - Reason about the nature of God
 - Proclaim the resurrection of Jesus Christ

The results

- Some will mock
- Some will believe

What will I do in response to this message?

“For me, a line from mother is more efficacious than all the homilies preached in Lent.” -- Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.
