Introduction: How can Christ be so glorious, if He suffered? How can we know that we will be glorified, if we are suffering?

1. Christ applies our redemption in our suffering, v10-11

a. Christ is our trailblazer

i. We are going where He is (v10a, all to the Father's glory, cf. Phil 2:11)

ii. He has been where we are (v10b)

iii. He is making us holy, getting us ready to be there (11a, cf. 12:1-17, esp vv10, 14)

b. Not just our trailblazer, then, but our brother, 11b (cf. Jn 14:1-7, 20:17)

2. Christ announces our redemption in worship, v12-13

a. A weekly family reunion (cf. 12:18-29)

b. Christ the preacher (v12a, cf. 12:25)

c. Christ the singer (v12b, cf. Eph 5:18-21; Col 3:16)

d. Christ the b_____ (v13a)

e. Christ the M_____ (v13b, cf. Jn 14:1-7, Heb 12:24)

3. Christ accomplished our redemption by His d_____, v14-18

a. The purpose of the in_____ was substitutionary death, v14a

b. That death destroys the d_____ and his p_____, v14b

c. That death makes us able to f_____ our own..., v15

d. ... Because that death absorbed God's wr_____, v16-17

e. ... And gives Christ the r_____ to help us, v18

Concluding applications: Be patient in suffering. Humble yourself to treat other believers as brothers, holding on to no bitterness. Devote yourself to the weekly Lord's Day worship services. Hear and heed the preaching as well as possible. Sing with all your heart, and reflect upon what you are singing. Come boldly to the throne of grace. Come affectionately, as a brother and a son.
