

Presuppositionalism

Chapter 5

1) Recite Romans 1:16-21

2) People need to be given evidences of God. Otherwise, they can't know Him and be held responsible.

- True
- False

3) Who has God generally revealed Himself to?

A:

4) What two aspects explain that all mankind has an innate (natural) knowledge of God?

- 1.
- 2.

5) What attributes of God are found in the External aspect?

A:

6) What attributes of God are found in the Internal aspect?

A:

7) How can the General Revelation correlate with The Great Commission?

A:

8) What responses can a man have towards General Revelation?

- a desire to know Him
- ignorance
- apathy
- rebellion

9) Does General Revelation reveal a divine god (with the attributes answered earlier) or only the one true living Judeo-Christian God, excluding all other theistic gods?

A:

10) How else has God revealed Himself?

A:

11) What is special revelation?

A:

12) What are some examples of this special revelation?

A:

13) What paths do these revelations bring a man?

General Revelation leads to _____.

Special Revelation can lead to _____.

14) How does the Presuppositionalist vs. the Evidentialist behave in the context of the heart of man?

The Evidentialist behaves as if the heart of man is _____

(_____)

The Presuppositionalist behaves as if the heart of man is _____

(_____)

15) Does God give special revelation to the non-elect?

A:

Examples:

16) There is NO neutrality.

Yet, is there common ground between believers & non-believers?

A:

Examples: