

Living Wise with our Work, Time, and Money

Colossians 3:23-24 “And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.”

1. What is work? How does the Scripture define and portray work?

2. Who do you work for?

3. How do you approach the work that you are called to?

4. When are you to work?

5. Why are you working?

Discussion Questions for evening devotions

1. How we approach our callings in life such as a part time job, being a student, being a son/daughter and/or brother/sister will reflect where our heart is before God. How so?
2. How and why can we do everything heartily as unto the Lord? How is this impossible apart from the Lord Jesus Christ?