

“Apollyon”
Revelation 9:11-12

 The Description Of The Locusts (9:7-10)

 The _____ Of The Locusts (9:11)

- Proverbs 30:27 - “The Locusts Have No _____”

- “The Personal Nature Of The Angel And King Of The Underworld Suggests That The Locusts Are Also Personal, That They Are Demonic Powers Of Some Kind!” (Schreiner)

1. The _____ Of Their King:

- They Follow His Orders:

- So They Are “Like Unto Horses Prepared For Battle” (9:7)

- “_____” (Basileus / βασιλεύς) - 20 Times In Revelation

- Some Times - Used For The Lord

- Most Times - Used For “Kings Of The Earth”

- Only Time Used For Another Spiritual Being

2. The _____ Of Their King:

- He Is An “_____” - But An Evil One (Jude 1:6 / Psalm 78:49)

- He Is The “Angel Of The _____” (Abussos / αβυσσος)

- The Place Of The Deep & The Dead

- He Possesses The Nature Of His Realm

- Is He The Same As The “Star” Of 9:1?

- Probably _____ - Since This “King” Is Loosed By The “Star”

3. The _____ Of Their King:

- Hebrew - The Native Language Of The Jews:

- Points Back To The _____ - And The Old Testament

- Greek - The International Language Of The Roman Empire:

- Points To The _____ - When Revelation Was Written

- “Abaddon” (אַבְדֹּן)

- A Noun - Means _____ & Destruction (OT - 6 Times)

- Job 26:6; 28:22; Job 31:12; Psalm 88:11; Prov. 15:11; 27:20

- The _____ Is Personified In Revelation

- “Apollyon” (Απολλύων)

- A Participle - From The Verb Apollumi (ἀπόλλυμι)

- Means - “The _____ One”

- The Opposite Of Jesus Mission (Luke 19:10)

- Likely Connected To The False Roman God:

- _____ (Απολλων)

- Instead Of A Healer Of Bodies, He Was A Destroyer Of _____!

- One Of His Symbols Was The Locust

- Also Associated With Emperor Domitian (81-96)

- From The Past - To The Present - And Into The _____:

- The Nature Of The “Destroyer” Is The Same!

- “The Message Is Clear! Demonic Powers Are Behind All Idolatry, And Their Purpose Is To Destroy Rather Than To Build Up!” (Grant Osborne)

- What Will Be His End?

- Everlasting _____! (Matthew 25:41)

 The _____ Of The Locusts (9:12 / 8:13)

- The First Woe Is The _____ Trumpet Judgment (9:1-11)

- The Second Woe Is The _____ Trumpet Judgment (9:13-21)

- There Is An Intensification Of God’s Judgments (9:18)

- Things Will Go From Bad To _____ For Unbelievers