Tim Harris

Psalm 78

- A. The introduction and the point of the psalm (vv.1-8)
- B. An example of a generation that forgot to remember what they were taught. (vv.9-11)
- C. The First Recounting of God's wondrous works to His people (vv.12-39)
- D. The Second recounting of God's gracious power towards His people (vv. 40-64)
- E. God's grace in saving His people and another example (vv. 65-72)

1. God desires that we tell others about His gracious power (vv.1-8)

First Warning: We must not neglect to tell others about God's gracious power.

First Solution: Tell others about God's gracious saving power.

2. God desires that we tell others about His gracious power so that we trust Him and stay committed to Him from our hearts. (vv.7-8)

Second Warning: We can know, witness, and experience God's gracious power and not trust Him or stay committed to Him.

Second Solution: Remember God's gracious power so that you trust Him and stay committed to Him from the heart.
