
Workers for the Truth

I. John—the heart of a truth worker

- a. Love

- b. In Truth

- c. Joyful prayer

II. Gaius—the deeds of a truth worker

- a. Gaius' vibrant walk

- b. Gaius' faithful work

- c. Gaius' future labor

- d. A model for ministry partnership
 - a. How to Send

 - b. Why We Send Them

 - c. Why We Send Them

Digging Deeper:

1. John and Gaius both exemplify what it means to be “fellow workers for the truth” (v. 8). What stands out to you from their character or conduct as we see it in this letter?
2. John encouraged and exhorted Gaius in his ministry efforts. If John were here, what are some ways he might encourage and exhort the saints at BCO in our ministry efforts?
3. How does the model given in this letter for Christian hospitality bear on our practice of hospitality in the 21st century?
4. How does the model for missionary support bear on our practice of missionary support at BCO?