

CTC! Consider the Consequences
2 Kings 18-20; 2 Chronicles 29-32; Isaiah 36-39

July 28, 2024 Ron Hamme

- I. Scripture is filled from _____ to _____ with the consequences of disobedience, sin, wrong choices (just a few examples).
"We can choose our sin, but we can't choose the consequences."
--Ravi Zacharias
- II. We should not be surprised when _____ behavior brings harsh responses.
- III. _____ was a righteous man who loved and served God, yet after God's miraculous intervention in his life he allowed _____ to take root.
- IV. As a blessed congregation in so many ways, we are not _____ to the possibility of being _____ to our own proud sinful attitudes that could bring disastrous consequences.
- V. "Let us take heed, lest we fall..." CTC! To God be the glory!
_____
_____
- VI. Even in partaking of the Lord's Supper, there can be disastrous consequences if we take it _____, without careful self-judgment and self-evaluation beforehand.

CTC! Consider the Consequences
2 Kings 18-20; 2 Chronicles 29-32; Isaiah 36-39

July 28, 2024 Ron Hamme

- I. Scripture is filled from _____ to _____ with the consequences of disobedience, sin, wrong choices (just a few examples).
"We can choose our sin, but we can't choose the consequences."
--Ravi Zacharias
- II. We should not be surprised when _____ behavior brings harsh responses.
- III. _____ was a righteous man who loved and served God, yet after God's miraculous intervention in his life he allowed _____ to take root.
- IV. As a blessed congregation in so many ways, we are not _____ to the possibility of being _____ to our own proud sinful attitudes that could bring disastrous consequences.
- V. "Let us take heed, lest we fall..." CTC! To God be the glory!
_____
_____
- VI. Even in partaking of the Lord's Supper, there can be disastrous consequences if we take it _____, without careful self-judgment and self-evaluation beforehand.

CTC! Consider the Consequences
2 Kings 18-20; 2 Chronicles 29-32; Isaiah 36-39

July 28, 2024 Ron Hamme

- I. Scripture is filled from cover to cover with the consequences of disobedience, sin, wrong choices (just a few examples).
“We can choose our sin, but we can’t choose the consequences.”
--Ravi Zacharias
- II. We should not be surprised when good, righteous, holy behavior brings harsh responses.
- III. Hezekiah was a righteous man who loved and served God, yet after God’s miraculous intervention in his life he allowed pride to take root.
- IV. As a blessed congregation in so many ways, we are not immune to the possibility of being blindsided to our own proud sinful attitudes that could bring disastrous consequences.
- V. “Let us take heed, lest we fall...” CTC! To God be the glory!

---

---
- VI. Even in partaking of the Lord’s Supper, there can be disastrous consequences if we take it lightheartedly, thoughtlessly, without careful self-judgment and self-evaluation beforehand.

CTC! Consider the Consequences
2 Kings 18-20; 2 Chronicles 29-32; Isaiah 36-39

July 28, 2024 Ron Hamme

- I. Scripture is filled from cover to cover with the consequences of disobedience, sin, wrong choices (just a few examples).
“We can choose our sin, but we can’t choose the consequences.”
--Ravi Zacharias
- II. We should not be surprised when good, righteous, holy behavior brings harsh responses.
- III. Hezekiah was a righteous man who loved and served God, yet after God’s miraculous intervention in his life he allowed pride to take root.
- IV. As a blessed congregation in so many ways, we are not immune to the possibility of being blindsided to our own proud sinful attitudes that could bring disastrous consequences.
- V. “Let us take heed, lest we fall...” CTC! To God be the glory!

---

---
- VI. Even in partaking of the Lord’s Supper, there can be disastrous consequences if we take it lightheartedly, thoughtlessly, without careful self-judgment and self-evaluation beforehand.