

- I. A fight between prophets
 1. Hananiah's message (28:1–4)

 2. Jeremiah's response (28:5–9)

 3. Hananiah's counter (28:10–11)

Relevant: Deut 18:22; Josh 9; Jer 25:11; 22:26

- II. God vindicates his word (28:12–17)

Relevant: Luke 2:25; 24:25

- III. Discerning and defending the truth

Relevant: John 10:27; 1 Cor 2:14

Application Questions

- God defends the truth of his own word. Do you find this challenging or liberating?
- What doubts do you have? If the answer is not, “I understand everything clearly,” but “God has spoken and I trust him,” how does this change your quest for truth?
- How does this chapter help us know how to lead other people to the truth of God's word?

Covenant Presbyterian Church · www.cpcvandalia.com

- I. A fight between prophets
 1. Hananiah's message (28:1–4)

 2. Jeremiah's response (28:5–9)

 3. Hananiah's counter (28:10–11)

Relevant: Deut 18:22; Josh 9; Jer 25:11; 22:26

- II. God vindicates his word (28:12–17)

Relevant: Luke 2:25; 24:25

- III. Discerning and defending the truth

Relevant: John 10:27; 1 Cor 2:14

Application Questions

- God defends the truth of his own word. Do you find this challenging or liberating?
- What doubts do you have? If the answer is not, “I understand everything clearly,” but “God has spoken and I trust him,” how does this change your quest for truth?
- How does this chapter help us know how to lead people to the truth of God's word?

Covenant Presbyterian Church · www.cpcvandalia.com