My Verse, My Story
Our Verse, Our Story – Proverbs 3:5-6
Scott Paulson – August 20, 2023

Main thought:

Let us be a church filled with people who stay on the path of wisdom by listening to God's Word, trusting in God with all our hearts, and submitting to Him in all our ways. May this verse be our verse, and our ongoing story!

Notes

Ways We Learn

1. By making mistakes
2. By watching others make mistakes
3. By listening to wisdom before you make mistakes

Principle of the Path

It's the path you are on, not the plan in your heart, that determines the place you will go.

Ice-Breaker

- Share a highlight from One Epic Week or share something we should celebrate that God is doing in our church.

Verse of the week

- What is a verse or truth from God's Word that stood out to you this week from your personal Bible reading?

Digging In

Read Proverbs 3:5-6, and discuss the following questions.

- What stood out to you from this passage?
- Why is the principle of the path so important to understand?
- Why do you think we tend to lean into our own understanding rather than trust in God with all our hearts?
- Why is submitting to God and His Word the wisest thing we can do?
- What encouragement would you share with someone who has strayed from the path of wisdom? How would you use this passage to challenge and comfort someone?

Application

- What is a key takeaway or application for you this week?

Praying as a group

- How can we be praying for each other this week?
