Sophia. Catechism question this week is number 104 in the children's. Of what use are the Ten Commandments to? And the answer is that they teach us our duty and show our need of a savior No, it's very interesting. Is that in this summary It is very similar to what do the scriptures principally?

Teach the scriptures principally teach. What man is to believe concerning God and the savior of which the Ten Commandments Teach us is God himself. We need someone who is as righteous as God and as glorious as God, not only to be the savior, who pays for our sins because we have sinned against God's glory.

And who is our righteousness? Because we need someone who can earn the heaven. Has as its Essence God's glory, but also Once we have been justified, forgiven made right with God, we need to be made fit for Glory, to be made fit for heaven. And how can our hearts and our minds?

And our words and our Behavior? Be brought into. A state where we would be as holy as Jesus is Holy and the answer is only by Jesus. Now, the Ten Commandments as they described for us. what love of God looks like what love of neighbor looks like. And and As each commandment implies everything that is required even of our hearts.

They show us that we still need a savior even after we've been forgiven. we need the grace of God to carry us in all of our obedience. So that Even after the fear of death and hell as punishments is gone because you have been forgiven in Jesus, still As.

As you live your life, trying to obey the Ten Commandments from the heart, you keep realizing, or you should keep realizing that. Something Daddy and Mommy are still growing in and everyone that, you know, and this Earth even the most mature Believers are still growing in. we still all day long are discovering.

Our continual need for a savior. To work in Us. In accordance with what? he has won and earned for us. So, that is what we're to believe. Concerning God, and of course The Ten Commandments, especially described to us. The duty that God requires of man and it's a duty that doesn't stop.

Once you've been made righteous in the Lord Jesus, And forgiven in the Lord, Jesus, your duty does not go away. God is still our creator. And now God is Our Redeemer. And so now our duty is doubled and more than doubled for to have God as Redeemer is even more.

Than to have God as Creator. And so what a blessed gift to us are the Ten Commandments that God has given us summarizing all of his commands in such. Short. Form. the Ten Commandments, teach us our duty and show our need of a savior of what use are the Ten Commandments to?

Teach us our duty. And show our need of a savior.
