Weekly Quote

"Yet what more necessary duties than to worship God in a spiritual and lively manner; to press the power of godliness up on the consciences of professors; to maintain and keep faithful and well qualified ministers in the church; go bear the bowels of mercy and meekness; not to offend the weak; not to confirm papists in Popery; to have all things in God's worship disposed according to the Word, and not according to the will of man, not to exercise lordship over the conscience of those whom Christ has made free; to abolish the monuments of by-past idolatry and badges of present idolatry?"

Who we Are:

Westminster: As historic reformed believers, we recognize that in God's gracious providence he has provided His Church with many creeds and confessions. Our Church subscribes to the Westminster Standards – which encompass the teachings of the Bible in the best human expression.

Presbyterian: In our form of church government and practice we are presbyterian – simply put, we believe in a church government that is instituted by God and is entrusted to His ambassadors; ministers and elders in their several bodies.

Church: God is calling a people unto Himself, and He has a special care for his bride, the Church! Where His special care is seen in the provision of growth, worship, and practice as we are fitly joined together into a whole as the Bride of Christ
