Satan promises the best but pays with the worst;
Satan promises honor but pays with disgrace;
Satan promises pleasure but pays with pain;
Satan promises profit but pays with loss;
Satan promises life but pays with death.

- Thomas Brooks

There are so many stony ground hearers who receive the Word with joy that I have determined to suspend my judgment till I know the tree by its fruits . . . Do you think any farmer would have a crop of corn next year unless he plowed now? You may as well expect a crop of corn on unplowed ground as a crop of grace until the soul is convinced of its being undone without a Savior . . . Because their stony ground is not plowed up; they have no conviction of the law . . . they fall away . . . that makes me so cautious now, which I was not thirty years ago, of dubbing converts too soon. Now I wait a little, and see if people bring forth fruit; for there are so many blossoms which March winds blow away that I cannot believe they are converts till I see fruit brought forth.
