Summary

"In all of the Bible's references to light, light is not self-generated. It comes (usually unbidden) from outside the earthly and human sphere and transforms that sphere with a transcendent splendor. As a symbol light thus pictures the simultaneous transcendence and immanence of God: it is from above, but it permeates everyday life."

— Ryken, Leland, et al. Dictionary of Biblical Imagery, Electronic ed., InterVarsity Press, 2000.

Encouragements

Light is an image of the inevitable victory in Jesus Christ. John 1:5. To the extent we partake of Jesus Christ in His Word, meet Him in prayer, fellowship with Him in the church, we expose ourselves to His light, and He drives the darkness from us.
