

PSALMS
The Lord Reigns Over All
Psalm 97:1-12

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 15, 2024

1. It is a truth worth rejoicing in, that the Lord reigns over all.

- a. Rejoice! The Lord governs as the ultimate _____ giver. Righteousness is the foundation of His throne.
- b. Rejoice! The Lord rules over all by His good and wise _____.
- c. Rejoice! The Lord rules through the coming and advancement of the Kingdom of _____ in the world.
- d. Rejoice! The Lord rules as the One to whom all are accountable as their _____.

2. There is reason for deep shame for those who enthusiastically choose to serve idols instead of the one true God.

- a. It is a certainty that at some point, all who worship false gods will cover their faces in _____.

b. Though man will be deceived into false worship, the _____ gladly worship the Triune God.

c. The people of God rejoice in the Lord and love seeing false gods _____ for what they really are.

3. The Lord Most High is faithful to preserve and deliver His godly ones.

- a. Those who are truly converted will show their love for the Lord by their _____ of evil.
- b. The Lord will so preserve the souls of believers that they will continue to _____ in their faith.
- c. Light from the Lord is _____ all along the pathway of the righteous to enable them to continue to grow in their faith.

“Whatever else we _____ in, we are to rejoice in such a manner, that we may be properly said to rejoice in the Lord, even when other things are the immediate occasions of our joy.” - Henry Grove