

JOB
Job's Final Discourse, Part 3
Job 29:1-25

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 2, 2012

1. The blessing of _____ begins with God Himself.

a. God's undeserved _____.

"This was the _____ thing he rejoiced in, in his prosperity, as the spring of it and the sweetness of it, that he had the favor of God and the tokens of that favor. He did not attribute his prosperity to a happy turn of fortune, nor to his own might, nor to the power of his own hand." - Matthew Henry

b. _____ with God.

c. A godly _____.

"The _____ of this perfectness and uprightness, or this complete integrity, was that he feared God. He set the will of God before him as his rule, the glory of God as his end, the approbation of God as his highest reward. In this pious fear of God he walked all day long." - William Henry Green

2. The blessing of God is often seen in _____ ways in the believers life.

"_____ fosters those qualities and habits which tend to world prosperity and success and to the promotion of the general good." - William Henry Green

a. _____.

b. _____ provision.

c. _____ service and influence.

"Though he had an affluence of the things of this world, he did not indulge himself at _____ in ease and sloth; but went abroad to take care of the public welfare, maintain public peace, and administer public justice among his neighbors; performing the office of a civil magistrate." - John Gill

d. Care for those in _____.