ELECTION SERMONS

God and Government Romans 13:1-5

Mac Williams, Pastor September 1, 2024

September 1, 2024			law, civil magistrates are to make determinations regarding and the Ch	oversition of the Lorent oversition of the Lorent every aspect of their limits.	dship of Christ that	b. As ministers of God, civil magistrates are to administer so that those who do evil are punished and those who do good are free to live their lives.
goveri	d has ordained a of human vernments with each sphere having its own actions, limitations, and powers.		4. Believers are to be in a God-honoring subjection to the governing authorities.
a.	GOD		a. There must be a readiness to the law and uphold legal order.
Ma	n Man	Man	"Civil magistrates being set up by God for the ends aforesaid; subjection, in all things commanded by them, ought to be yielded by us in the Lord, not only for wrath, but for conscience' sake."  - 1689 Baptist Confession
Ног	ne Church	State
b. A civil government and its officials are providentially ordained by God but not necessarily divinely by Him.			<ul> <li>b. When governing authorities cease to govern in ways that are consistent with God's moral law, they should be rebuked, resisted, and</li> </ul>

3. God has ordained in His Word the functions of civil

a. As ministers of God and in accordance with His moral government.