Question #6: Are all three members of the Trinity equal?
Answer: Yes, They are equal as persons, but different in roles.

Key verse:

1 Corinthians 11:3, "But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God."

Explanation:

Every organization must have one head to function. Every company, business, factory, sports team, country, state, county, town, marriage, family, church, etc. must have one head. The old saying is true: "Anything with two heads is a monster".

The Trinity also has one Head - The Father. All three members are equal, but the Father is the Head. Christ is in subjection to the Father, now and forever.

1 Corinthians 15:28, "And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all." (Be sure to read verse 24-27 to keep this verse in context).

The Holy Spirit is so humble, He doesn't even speak of Himself. John 16:13, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come." He speaks what He is told.

Illustration:

All humans in America are equal, but the President is higher in role.

All humans in New York are equal, but the Governor is higher in role.
